Question

A protein folds with a rate constant of 100 s^{-1}. At the "melt temperature" the free energy of the folding transition is, $\Delta G^o = 0$. What is the observed rate constant for folding at this temperature?

A. 100 s^{-1}

B. 200 s^{-1}

C. 50 s^{-1}

D. 0 s^{-1}

Question

A protein folds with a rate constant of 100 s^{-1}. At the "melt temperature" the free energy of the folding transition is, $\Delta G^o = 0$. What is the observed rate constant for folding at this temperature?

A. 100 s^{-1}

B. 200 s^{-1}

C. 50 s^{-1}

D. 0 s^{-1}