Work of expansion for a chemical reaction

If Zn metal reacts with HCl to generate H_2 gas the reaction generates heat and does work as the H_2 gas expands against atmospheric pressure. If 6 grams of Zn metal reacts with 1 M HCl in 0.2 L of solution, what Is the work of expansion against the atmosphere?